

Define Potential presents:

Building Trust and Engagement

Course Overview:

Being authentic in the way you work with others is critical in building trust and engagement. Through this course participants will explore the concept of Authentic Leadership, building trust, self acceptance and self confidence. Highly interactive, the course will develop skills to increase meaningful, open conversations with peers, managers and direct reports to drive engagement.

Course Details

Format

- Online

Duration

- 6 hours

Audience

- Mid-level leaders
- Senior leaders

$750pp GST inc.*

Course Outline

Session 1

Introduction and Overview

- Overview of program objectives

Session 2

Leadership Authenticity and Reflection

- What is Authentic Leadership
- Self-awareness check-in

Session 3

Authentically Supporting Others

- The true qualities of authentic leaders

Session 4

Ingredients of Trust

- Exploring the 'Trust Triangle'

Session 5

Driving Engagement

- Diagnosing motivation and engagement
- Engagement enablers

Session 6

Putting it all together

- Personal action commitments

Key Learning Objectives

Explain Authentic Leadership and how to apply development tips in a way that suits the individual.

Explore skills to increase meaningful, open conversations

Identify signs of motivation and engagement

Develop an understanding of engagement enablers

Understand your role in building positive workplace relationships

“Authentic Leadership isn't about titles or having all the answers, it's about being human”

- Unknown

Want more information? Contact us via any method below to learn more www.definepotential.com.au / 02 6174 0869 / admin@definepotential.com.au

* Plus Eventbrite booking fee