

Define Potential presents:

Leading with Strategic Thinking

Course Overview:

In an increasingly complex and uncertain world, organisational leaders need to build the capability to lead well and lead differently. This program is designed to help leaders effectively adapt in these contexts, unpacking thinking skills from pure operational thinking, to tactical strategy, through to strategic thinking.

Course Details

Format

- Online
- In-person

Duration

- Half days
- Full day

Audience

- Mid-level leaders
- Senior leaders

$750pp GST inc.*

Course Outline

Session 1

Understanding Strategic Thinking

- Definition and importance of strategic thinking
- The role of strategic thinking in leadership

Leveraging Strengths and Addressing Challenges

- Strategies to maximize strengths in strategic thinking
- Recognising and overcoming personal and organisational challenges

Session 2

Model for Strategic Thinking

- Exploring the differences of operational and strategic thinking
- Identify some development paths

Contextual Application of Strategic Thinking

- Understanding the organisational context
- Applying strategic thinking to current business challenges

Key Learning Objectives

Understand your preferred strategic thinking styles and the influence on your decision-making processes

Identify your strategic strengths and areas for development, to enhance your strategic capabilities.

Explore how to match your strategic thinking styles with specific work contexts and focus areas.

Begin to apply your learning to real-world challenges in the workplace.

"Strategic thinking is the ability to anticipate, envision, maintain flexibility, and empower others to create strategic change as necessary."

- John P. Kotter

Want more information? Contact us via any method below to learn more www.definepotential.com.au / 02 6174 0869 / admin@definepotential.com.au

* Plus Eventbrite booking fee